Liaison with DD/P

CONFIDENTIAL

In 1954 the IG found that ~~the~~ while the Clandestine Services Training Committee of DD/P handled the mechanical liaison relationships satisfactorily, it was not of sufficient stature to impress upon DD/P units the essentiality of training, the adherence to training policy, or the meeting of commitments to furnish students to be trained.^{1/} at the end of the period A step taken to remedy this situation was the appointment of an experienced operations officer as training officer for DD/P who was responsible for training plans for the DD/P and for liaison with OTR regarding the implementation of these plans.^{2/}
